

THE GARDEN ISLAND PUBLISHING CO., LTD.

Up-To-Date Printers, Bookbinders and Publishers of

THE GARDEN ISLAND

A Weekly Newspaper Issued Tuesdays.

Entered at the Postoffice at Lihue, Hawaii, as Second-class Matter.

Subscription Rates: Per Year,$2.50
Six Months, 1.50
Three Months, 1.00

Subscriptions Payable in Advance.

Space Advertising Rates on Annual Contracts, 75 cents per Inch per Month.

K. C. HOPPER, Business Manager

MAPS OF THE WORLD

Given FREE To NEW Subscribers of

THE GARDEN ISLAND

New Subscribers During The Months Of March And April, Paying $2.50 In Advance For Subscription To This Paper For One Year, Will Be Entitled To One Of These Maps.

Every Home And Every Office Should Have One. Valuable at All Times And Highly Important On Occasions.

Address: THE GARDEN ISLAND, Lihue.

LATEST WIRELESS NEWS

Continued from page 1
AMERICAN STEAMERS HELD

The American steamers Navajo, Fordney and Leama are detained at Kirkwall by the British authorities. The owners of the vessels have appealed to the American Embassy to secure their release.

BRITISH STEAMER TORPEDOED

The British steamer Mayfair, on her way from an American to a Britisher port with a cargo of cotton, was torpedoed off the Scilly Islands.

SCARBOROUGH FRIGHTENED AGAIN

London—Heavy firing is reported off the coast at Scarborough, the news giving rise to rumors of a sea battle between English and German warships in that neighborhood.

The Austrian resistance in the Dukla pass has been routed, and they have retreated, abandoning horses and transport facilities.

Monday Morning, April 12.

Sugar, 4.64.

Honolulu—The cruiser Maryland is expected at 8 o'clock this morning.

ANOTHER GERMAN ARRIVES

Newport News, Va.—The German auxiliary cruiser Kronprinz William arrived today, having succeeded in dodging the fleet of the Allies which is still waiting outside.

She was met outside by two U. S. submarines and escorted first to quarantine and thence to a dock in port.

The auxiliary has asked for coal and will have survey made to determine need of repairs. She has sunk fourteen vessels with their cargoes, representing $7,000,000.

FRENCH MEET STRONG RESISTANCE

London—French assaults on the lines protecting Metz are meeting with stubborn resistance, and attacks have drawn many fierce counter attacks.

Apparently German activity in the north is to keep the French from concentrating in the Woevre district.

EARLY PEACE IS HOPELESS

Venice—Count Tisa, Hungarian premier, has no hope for early peace. He thinks the war will surely continue until the Autumn.

LUMBER FROM CANADA

London—It is said that British Columbia mills have been asked to bid on 500,000,000 feet of lumber to be used in the construction of 1,00 two-room houses in Northern France.

THE CHRISTMAS SHIP RETURNS

San Francisco—The Christmas ship Jason has arrived here on return trip.

VILLA IS BADLY DEFEATED

Laredo—The forces of General Carranza have put the Villa army to route, killing 3,000 men and checking the advance on Tampico. Villa is said to be retreating northward.

SUBMARINES STILL ACTIVE

Plymouth—German submarines continue to take toll in British shipping. The steamer Frederick Franck was towed into port yesterday, damaged by a German submarine.

RUSSIANS USING EXPLOSIVES

Petrograd—The Russians are now using high explosives in digging trenches, blowing great holes between theirs and Germans positions.

FOUR ARE HAPPY BRIDES

London—Four German prisoners of war were married here yesterday to girls to whom they were engaged before the war began.

Riots broke out yesterday when members of the intervention party made violent speeches and were arrested by the military.

WILSON TO RUN AGAIN

Washington—Democratic leaders say that Wilson will surely be a candidate for re-election.

Sunday Morning, April 11.

Sugar, 4.64.

Washington—Representative Gardener said last night that the loss of the submarine F-4 at Honolulu was due to the "peaceful persuasion" policy of Secretary Daniels, accompanied by a pretense of preparedness. The loss of life at Honolulu was directly due, he said, to the neglect of the submarine branch of the navy by the Secretary.

MARYLAND COMING SLOWLY

San Francisco—Wireless advices state that the cruiser Maryland, which is on her way to Honolulu with tackle and men to raise the submarine F-4, is steaming slowly.

MUNITIONS FOR THE RUSSIANS

Tacoma—The steamer Hakashika Maru sailed from this port yesterday with a cargo of war munitions and aeroplanes for the Russian army.

ACQUITTED OF KILLING WIFE

Paris—The captain of the French army who killed his wife for disobeying military orders of General Joffre has been acquitted of the charge of murder.

JAPANESE RESTIVE IN MEXICO

San Francisco—Japanese laborers are becoming restive as result of their treatment at the hands of Mexicans. Condition of the Japanese across the line in Mexico approaches starvation.

CONSUL'S OFFICE RAIDED

Douglas, Arizona—The office of Consul Simplic, at Nogales, was entered by two Mexicans, whom the consul surprised while they were searching files of documents some of which are missing. One of the men was captured, but will give no explanation of the attempted theft of documents.

TROUBLES OF ANTI-NEUTRALS

Los Angeles—Harry Chandler and his companions, who were arrested for breaking the neutrality laws, with respect to Mexico have been re-arrested for intimidating witnesses.

HOLLAND AND GERMANY FRIENDLY

The Hague—There is the utmost confidence here of continued relations between Holland and Germany. How the rumor of a break between the countries started cannot be ascertained.

RELIEF STEAMER TORPEDOED

Rotterdam—The British steamer Harpalve, which brought the first cargo of provisions for Belgian relief, was sunk in the North Sea by a German submarine yesterday. Twenty-six of the crew of 53 were drowned.

THE AGITATION IN ITALY

Rome—Momentous events hinge upon developments throughout Italy today, if the expectations of those who have arranged an almost nation wide series of mass meetings in favor of the immediate participation in the war are realized.

These meetings have been called by the leaders of the five political parties, who are foremost in leading the war agitation and who argue that the time for diplomacy has passed and the day for Italy to strike against Austria is at hand, to secure revenge for lost provinces.

AMERICAN COTTON CAPTURED

London—Cotton captured on an American steamship bound for Bremen has been ordered to a British prize court to be adjudged.

A REPORT FROM PAPIS

Paris—The French lunge toward Metz continues, with the Germans desperately striving to retain positions of lines along the Meuse and the Moselle.

French attacks are persistent, and fresh trenches have been taken throughout Ardennes.

The Teutons are reported to have fallen back in several places. Les Epargne heights have been finally captured by the French.

GERMANS HAVE LOST 30,000

During the two months of fighting in this locality, the Germans have lost 30,000 men.

ALLIES WIN ON FRONTS

London—Reports from all fronts yesterday tell of reverses for the Austro-Germans, while the French along the eastern end of the Allies' line have made appreciable gains, taking prisoners and inflicting severe losses upon the invaders.

THE FIGHTING IN MEXICO

Washington—With a general attack on Tampico expected to begin at any time, and the situation in the city being very bad, Americans in Tampico have asked the State Department for transportation to the United States. It is claimed that there are 300 Americans stranded there.

UNIONS FAVOR PROHIBITION

Chicago—The value of prohibition as a war measure to conserve funds, health and aggressiveness has been officially recognized by the leaders of the labor unions, and they have sent out urgent recommendations to the unions of America that all unions facing strikes adopt prohibition for their members as one of the first moves.

Saturday Afternoon

Sugar, 4.64.

TENNEY PECK PROMOTED

Honolulu—L. Tenney Peck has been elected president of the First National Bank, succeeding Cecil Brown.

MANOA DAMAGED ON COAST

San Francisco—The steamer Elizabeth rammed the steamship Manoa today, making a whole shove the water line. The Stanford team leaves soon for Hawaii.

NOTED SCULPTOR DEAD

New York—Sculptor Bitter, who was chief of the department of sculpture for the Panama-Pacific Exposition, died here today.

PLAGUE'S PROGRESS IN HAVANA

Havana, Cuba—Two more cases of plague were discovered here today.

STANFORD WINS RACES

Oakland—Stanford University won both university races today. The transpacific yacht race this year may be abandoned on account of lack of interest on the Pacific coast.

STARTLING RUMORS FROM FRONT

London—The weekend strike of dock workers collapsed. Mass meetings by factions for and against war to be held tomorrow in Italy despite the protest of the authorities.

Austria is withdrawing troops from the Serbian frontier to protect herself on the Italian border.

It is reported here that Austria has reached a decision to sound Russia on the subject of peace.

The Vatican denies a report that Austria requested the assistance of the Pope in adjusting her present difficulties.

The Austrians lost 26,000 men in the last battle in the Carpathians.

It is reported that Austria has abandoned her campaign against Serbia altogether.

The French sailing vessel Cheaubriand, bound for New York, has been torpedoed by a German submarine off the Isle of Wright.

New York—Scenes of the wildest excitement were experienced on the stock exchange here today, due to speculative boom in stock caused by the apparently changing war situation. There were gains of from one to three points in stocks favored by speculators. Total sales were 860,000 shares.

Cadiz—A steamer arriving here reports sighting the British ship Robert, which had been abandoned. Her masts were shattered. It is believed that she was shelled by a German warship, her crew being taken off.

Saturday, April 10

Sugar, 4.64.

Honolulu—Captain Smith denies charges that the submarine F-4 was not in good condition. Admiral Moore has been ordered by the Secretary of the Navy to make a complete investigation of the matter and report.

The Military Bill has aroused strong condemnation from church people. Dr. Scudder denounces it.

Mrs. Black, the Honolulu lady whom it was said was told about the bad condition of the submarine F-4, denies the statement.

Petrograd—An official report given out at the war office last night says that the Russians now control the Carpathians.

Austrian resistance in the south has collapsed, and remnants of the forces of Franz Joseph are unable to resume the defensive.

There are more rumors of the efforts of the Emperor of Austria to obtain peace.

Washington—Germany, through her ambassador, has presented a note to the State Department, charging the United States with having an agreement with the British government relative to embargo. Berlin thinks this attitude will not protect the neutrality of the United States. Secretary Bryan is framing a reply.

London—The Allied fleet has again bombarded the forts of the Dardanelles, with considerable damage as the result.

Berlin—Germany has seized 5,500 pieces of cannon since the war began.

Washington—A rumor prevails here that Germany has requested the United States to sound the Allies on the question of peace.

Rome—War or revolution is the choice presented to King Emanuel of Italy. Unless he moves against Franz Joseph without delay, the people threaten to drive him off the throne.

Political leaders have given him warning to this effect.

All railroad stock has been commandeered by the Italian Government for the transportation of troops.

Washington—Carranza has notified the United States that he cannot consent to the city of Mexico being made neutral territory.

Friday Afternoon

Los Angeles—It has been found that the lieutenant who went down in the submarine off Honolulu wrote to his brother in Los Angeles of a blow-out on the vessel and prophesied that the vessel would some day go up in smoke.

The statement of Mrs. Nelson, wife of a petty officer on board, that her husband said the vessel was unseaworthy, has been confirmed by a resident of Honolulu.

Petrograd—The Russian staff considers that the Austrian opposition in the Carpathian mountains has collapsed. Beskids has been conquered.

New fighting has developed north of Suwalki.

London—Italy is withdrawing all her railroad equipment from the Swiss frontier to facilitate the movement of her troops to the border of Tyrol, a province of Austria immediately north of Italy.

King Constantine, of Greece, says that the position of his country is similar to that of Italy. Military preparedness is sought, without necessarily abandoning neutrality.

The French are advancing further along the Meuse and Moselle, attempting to force the Germans back, resulting in sanguinary fighting. It is claimed that German trenches captured were choked with the dead.

Germany admits fierce fighting but denies advancement of the French.

There was a large increase of import business into England in March, but a decrease of nearly fifteen million pounds sterling in exports.

Petrograd—Franz Joseph appears to his people to aid in securing peace. At the outset Hungarians were for solidarity with Germany. Army now insists that war continue, as Austria will have to pay the price in any event.

Chicago—Ex-Senator Lorimer will be tried for bank wrecking.

Friday, April 9

Sugar, 4.625.

Rome—All Italian steamers due to leave for American ports are being held until after the twentieth instant. The order came 24 hours after concentration of the Italian navy.

Havre—The birthday of King Albert was celebrated here today in Belgium's temporary capital.

Berlin—Eight thousand Jews have been expelled from Warsaw by the Russians.

Petrograd—The Allies are almost ready to attack the Dardanelles by land and sea. Several of the Allies' ships were sighted from the Province of Adrianople yesterday.

New York—The Shaw case will be reopened and he will have chance to prove he is not insane.

Washington—Agents of Villa here deny he was defeated. They say he repulsed Obregon forces.

Seattle—Australian apples have been barred from the coast on account of being contaminated by the Mediterranean fruit fly.

San Francisco—Captain Dollar will ask $20,000 from Japan as damages for the seizure of the ship Cristian Boers.

San Jose—The entire government of Costa Rica was nearly lost, with the yacht shipwrecked near Puenta Arena.

Washington—The armada which will pass through the canal in June, will be larger and greater than that which went around the world during Roosevelt's administration.

St. Louis—A terrific electrical storm passed over this State yesterday, accompanied by rain and hail. Wires down and communication interrupted. No estimates made of damage.

Honolulu—The diving bell recently manufactured by the Honolulu Iron Works, to aid in raising the F-4 has been abandoned by Captain Smith. Proceedings relative to raising the sunken vessel will await the arrival of the Maryland.

The statement made by Nelson, one of the ill-fated crew, and repeated by his wife, in Los Angeles, was made the night before the vessel went down.

The Medical Society condemns Judge Stuart, for attack on McConkey in granting new trial in Martin Wilson case.

It is rumored about town, that the Pacific Mail Steamship Co. will give up, on account of restrictions, imposed by sailor's bill, recently passed by Congress.

Kupieha findings by legislative committee, excites citizens to ask what will follow conviction by the committee.

GREGG STEEL FRAME CARS